Commission (UNCC) has settled 183 Indian Category "B' claims for US $ 700,000. This money is being disbursed to the individual claimants through the four designated nationalised banks, namely, the Central Bank of India, the Indian Overseas Bank, the Syndicate Bank and the Union Bank of India. The UNCC has approved approximately 97,000. Indian Category "A' claims for payment but no money has been transferred by the UNCC for settling these claims. The UNCC is at present scrutinising Category "C claims. After this, they will take up examination of Category "D' claims and only after that. Category "E' and Category "F' claims which are corporate and Government claims.

The UNCC is exclusively responsible to scrutinise and examine these claims and award payments. The Government is in touch with the UNCC for settling the claims of Indian nationals. However, since the UNCC has no funds at present, the Government is not in a position to make an assessment of the timeframe within which all pending claims will be settled by the UNCC.
